Touch the heart of Japanese people through the culture of mind and technique

Budo Tourism

◆ February 24, 2024 (Sat) ~ February 28, 2024 (Wed) Nagoya, Aichi

Nagoya, Aichi, is located in the center of Japan and was the stage of battles during the Warring State Period. The city produced Oda Nobunaga, Toyotomi Hideyoshi, Tokugawa Ieyasu, and many samurai lords who significantly affected the making of Japan in a later period. Even today, there remain famous historical sites related to samurai lords, and the origin of the Japanese spirit, or the spirit of Budo. See the famous spots and touch the spirit of Budo.

Tours include diverse special experiences that allow participants to learn about martial arts.

A Nagoya Castle

General tour & Hommaru Palace after closing

After-closing tour of Hommaru Palace, which is usually closed to the public. Premium Plans are guided by the popular Nagoya Omotenashi Bushotai (team acting like real historical samurai lords and soldiers), with one member acting as Tokugawa Ieyasu. *There is also free time for general tours and souvenir shopping.

B The Tokugawa Art Museum

Tour and experience the disassembly and assembly of a Japanese sword, and handling a matchlock gun

A special program that allows participants to experience the disassembly and assembly of a Japanese sword and handle a matchlock gun, followed by a tour of the Tokugawa Art Museum. Tour participants have time for souvenir shopping.

C Atsuta Jingu Shrine

Visit Mikakiuchi (courtyard of the shrine), Pray at Kagura-Den (Sacred Dance Hall)

Experience a worship service in Mikakiuchi, a special place normally closed to the general public, and a prayer service at Kagura-Den. *Dress code: Formal or kyudo uniform.

D 22nd Headmaster of the Yagyu Shinkage Ryu family

The Spirit of Budo presentation

Sword fighting has been handed down from the late Muromachi Period, approximately 500 years ago. Visitors can see a presentation of "mind and technique" in Budo. *Presentation given at Kujyaku-no-Ma room of Nagoya Castle on February 26th and at the Lecture Hall of the Tokugawa Art Museum on February 27th and 28th.

E Yamakatsu Senko

Workshop where participants add a family crest onto Nagoya black dye cloth

Lecture on the history of Nagoya black dye handed down from the Edo Period. The lecture is followed by a workshop where participants add a family crest onto a black-dyed towel.

*Take home the black-dye towel as a souvenir.

Premium Plan includes a deluxe lunch.

*The photo is of the Mandara lunch to be served on February 26th, 27th, and 28th. The actual lunch may differ slightly. *Lunch on February 24th and 25th is scheduled at Hozentei.
